LAB GROWN DIAMOND Melee/Non-Certified

HISTORY: Lab grown diamonds are man-made diamonds that are chemically, physically, and optically identical to diamonds originating from nature. Both have the same chemical composition and atomic structure, producing the very same durability, fire, and sparkle. Laboratory grown diamonds are a testament to the use of technology and human achievement.

HARDNESS: 10
TOUGHNESS: Excellent
REFRACTIVE INDEX: 2.42
DISPERSION: .044
SPECIFIC GRAVITY: 3.52

QUALITY:

D, E, F: Very, very slightly included, colorless
G, H: Very slightly included, near colorless
I, J: Slightly included, near colorless

REACTIONS

Ultrasonic: Safe
Steamer: Safe
Heat: Good
Chemicals: None

SOURCES: Lab grown diamonds are a new source of diamonds grown above the earth.

CARE & HANDLING

No special care required. Can be cleaned with commercially available cleaners. Sudden impacts may cause breakage or chipping.
